Event Date: January 15-16, 2010

We are happy to announce that we are accepting proposals for the 2010 KY Flute Festival. We are excited to hear about your lecture or clinic. The goal of this Festival is to include flutists of all ages and abilities, and to inspire everyone in attendance. We will especially welcome age-specific clinic ideas for beginning students, high school students, college/conservatory students, or a specific topic that would be interesting for all levels.

Call for Proposals:

Presentations are to be no longer than 30 minutes in length. Your proposal should include a one-page description of the presentation and the attached application form. Presenters agree to appear at the 2010 KY Flute Festival at their own expense. Travel information may be found on the FSK website at www.FSKentucky.org. Proposals are to be sent to the address below for consideration, postmarked by August 1, 2009 and received by August 7, 2009.
